

Men's Club Minutes for May 5, 2021

The meeting was called to order by President Michael Johnston in the Atrium of the clubhouse at 8:15.

4 new members were introduced: Ron Edwards, Jim Hunt, Bruce Johnston, and Tom Thibodeau.

Minutes of the April 14, 2021 meeting were approved by voice vote, as well as the treasurers report.

The Ladies Club were thanked for providing the treats today.

Anyone not receiving emails from the Men's Club are reminded to sign up on the sheet on the Men's Club Bulletin Board.

On Sunday, May 16, Alderbrook will be hosting the US Kids Tournament. The clubhouse is looking for 8-10 volunteers to help run the tournament and keep the speed of play up. Tell Sam if you can help.

Captain's Report

- Mike Lambert reminded everyone that the Traveler's Prize Pot can be entered for an additional $5 on any Men's Club Wednesday or Friday events when you can post a score.
- Don't forget the NEW Men's Club KP side pots on Wednesdays. The cost is $2.
- The Home and Home with Lakeland Village will cost $50, which includes all costs to play and for lunch. There is a special $10 cart fee if you don't share with your partner. Tee times will be scheduled at Lakeland Village. Alderbrook will have a shotgun start.
- The Course is closed on Monday, May 10 for Mid Washington Seniors. We will be playing away that day at Newaukum.
- Pace of play - stay up with the group ahead of you.
- Take a sand bottle with you.
- Be sure to fix your green divots, and any others you see.
- The 50/50 tickets are good for a free drink after today's round only.

Handicap Chairman's Report

- Post your own scores ONLY IF YOU DO NOT PARTICIPATE IN THE MEN'S CLUB GAME.

Old Business

- A vote was held to amend our Standing Rules, Part 1, Section 2, to allow our AGYC employees with golf privileges to join the Men's Club. The motion passed. The amendment will now be forwarded to the AGYC Board for document review and then voted on by the board for final approval.

New Business

- Pro Shop - The taped off areas around holes 9 and 12 are ground under repair. You may move your ball no closer to the hole.
- 50/50 ticket was awarded.
- Meeting was adjourned at 8:43.
